Who Was Aggie Scott?

Agnes "Aggie" Scott who lived in Mineral Springs loved to cook & bake. For over 30 years she was the Cook/Manager at Ryder School until her retirement in 1986. She was a volunteer at Cobleskill Regional Hospital from the time of it's beginning in the early 1950s and worked in the coffee shop. Aggie had many different kinds of cookie cutters including a "ground hog" which she loved to use to make cookies for "ground hog day". It had been hand-made for her while she worked at the Ryder School. She was an exhibitor and volunteer at the fair most recently with Historic Treasures. We offer the Chocolate Jumbles Cookie Contest each year as a tribute to Aggie and her many, many years of being "Cobleskill's Volunteer".
